Item (9) on the agenda was for discussion concerning the city’s website. Mayor Osborne noted that the city’s website is in need of an upgrade and that this has been an issue for some time. He also noted that when looking at other city’s website it is obvious that the City of Searcy website falls short when comparing to them. He said that Mr. Cargile has been looking into the issue and that he has information that he would like to share with the Council. Mr. Cargile explained that he has been in contact with various companies regarding what can be done to improve the City of Searcy website and the cost of implementing the improvements. He noted that in the course of this research, he was impressed by both the improvement suggestions and the cost of such that were presented by Pugh Communications. He further noted that Pugh Communications is operated by a local resident and Harding University faculty member and has been highly recommended by other entities that have used her for their websites. He also noted that the cost of her services were highly competitive. He asked her to put together a proposal for the City of Searcy for improvements to the city’s website. Her proposal was for a cost of $12,000.00 along with a $75.00 per month hosting fee. Mr. Raney stated that the city’s website definitely needs an upgrade and that the social media aspect definitely needs to be addressed to align with the current trends in communication. Information Technology Director Steve Gifford noted that the biggest issue is getting the various departments to provide content that should be displayed on the city’s website. Mr. Chalenburg agreed that having content provided is probably the biggest issue and that an emphasis placed upon the departments to provide content needs to be stressed. Mr. Raney also agreed and said that he believes that at this time the city needs to get a jumpstart on improving the website and that this proposal from Pugh Communications would provide this at a reasonable cost.
